budé from 1516 to 1519 in the context of budé's de asse et partibus eius and erasmus's de asse et partibus eius. the two humanists argued about the adagia proper style of intellectual exchange and the proper audience for their works. budé believed that men like himself and erasmus should concentrate only on subjects that are too difficult for average scholars, while erasmus wanted his works to be ... saint ambroise de milan - collège de france - bulletin de
